Section 116 was discussed but no amendment was proposed. The Council considered the addition made by the H. the Court was not necessary.

Section 181. The provision requiring the suspension of execution and reference was considered and the Select Committee's suggestion was adopted.

Chapter XIV Mr Watts moved as an amendment that Chapter XIV be rewritten as in the British Code and that both the H. the Court's and Select Committee's amendments be omitted.

Carried.

Section 181 The addition to Section 181 was discussed and it was resolved to retain the words "of the 1st or 2nd class" as suggested by the Select Committee and as in the British Code.

Section 220. The provision in the last para about compensation against public servants was discussed. It was resolved that the High Court's addition as proposed by the Select Committee be omitted and the section as in the British Code be retained.

M R Ry Rajaraama Rao Avergal proposed an amendment viz the omission of summary trials (Chapter XXII)

Carried.

Section 265. M R Ry Rajaraama Rao Avergal proposed to amend the section by cancelling the Select Committee's proposal and restoring the section as it was but substituting Malayalam for language of the Court.

Section 280. It was also proposed by him that the Select Committee's amendment be omitted.

Carried.
